because he is the world's great builder, he will erect his own Arch of Triumph that shall span the entire expanse of civilization. For this crowning purpose has he so strangely been preserved. As the result of a world-wrecking war, our antiquated social structure is in a state of utter collapse; but under the Jew's creative hand, as the fabled phoenix arose from the ashes of its own consuming, there will arise from the dust and debris of this shattered fabric a new and a nobler edifice.

WACO.

The Junior Congregation gave its annual affair to the confirmation class of 1921. It was a dinner dance. It was held in the basement of the Temple. The rooms were decorated with flowers and balloons. This affair was made possible by the good work of Tillie Lazarus, Rebecca Rosenberg, Eli Landman, Sol Cohen and Morton Lazarus.

Those present were Marguerite Howtof, Hazel Levinson, Glen Jacobs, Thelma Novich, Gertrude Block, Sadie Goldberg, Tillie Lazarus, Rebecca Rosenberg, Bessye Lieberman, Mr. Eli Landman, Simon Wise, Harold Block, Sol Cohen, Nate Kaplan, Isidore Kaplan, Julius Ginsberg, Adrian Sanger, Morton Lazarus.

The chaperones for the evening were: Rabbi and Mrs. W. Macht, Rabbi Brodie, Miss Sadie Novich, Mrs. Mose Hirschfelder and Mrs. Joe Snaman. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dollins were later guests. The music for the dance was furnished by Sadie Novich and Aubrey Sachs.

The Agudah Jacob Ladies

The Agudath Jacob Ladies Aid Society held their closing meeting last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of their worthy president, Mrs. L. Fred, on North Fifth street. Almost a hundred members were present. Mrs. Fred opened the meeting with a prayer. Later she made an appeal to the members to raise funds to beautify our synagogue. Eighty-two dollars and fifty cents was raised, including a beautiful cake donated by Mrs. Jake Haymon, which was raffled off and netted $16. After the business session was over, a most enjoyable program was arranged. A piano solo by Mrs. Harry Freeman, a recitation of a beautiful poem by Mrs. Nathan Freeman, a song by Mrs. Jake Haymon, an interesting reading by Mrs. Abe Adams, and a recitation by Mrs. M. Koppman. After the program, delicious refreshments were served. The affair was a beautiful one and was enjoyed by all. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Ben Kaplan, Nathan Freeman, and Z. Hoppenstein.
